Mobile Phone and iPod Policy 2012

- Mobile phones, iPods and other such devices are to be turned off and be out of sight during lessons, assemblies and meetings. N.B. students who have study lines are to honour this part of the policy.
- Mobile phones may be used to receive, return, or make calls during recess and lunch breaks, or before and after school.